

Guidelines and Agreement for Exhibiting at Café Aion

- Please visit the restaurant to see the hanging space provided, so you can have a better idea which of your artworks will work the best on the wall space.
- You can hang 6 - 15 artworks depending on the sizes.
- All artworks must have professional quality framing or finished edge wrapped canvas with wire hangers (please no saw tooth hangers).
- Dakota Soifer, owner of Café Aion, reserves the right to choose/reject specific work(s) by each juried artist and may want to see your artworks in person prior to hanging.
- Café Aion does not handle any sales of your artwork. You may provide business cards to leave at the restaurant for people interested in buying your work.
- If you would like Dakota to create your art tags and Bio sheet, please email him your bio and artwork information (include title, medium and price with each thumbnail image of your art).
- Your artworks will be displayed for approximately 2 months. Take down/pick-up should be on or very close to the last day of the last month. Please coordinate your take down day and time with both the next exhibiting artist and Dakota in advance, so Café Aion is not left with blank walls. You will be given the next exhibiting artist's contact information before the end of your exhibition.
- You are responsible for the hanging of your artworks. Wall hardware will be provided and Dakota can be available to assist. You are free to move the hardware on the painted wall, but do not move or install any hardware on the brick walls. (If you have extra heavy artworks, please provide the necessary wall hardware for them).
- You are welcome to arrange an artist reception at Café Aion. Dakota encourages this and offers $50 towards food and drinks at Café Aion for your reception. Please coordinate this with Dakota if interested.
- Café Aion is generously providing this beautiful exhibit space for BAA artists, so we encourage you to invite people to dine there and have your beautiful work seen at the same time! Please also like Café Aion on Facebook. They promote your work on their page, so you may do likewise for them.
- There is no commission fee for sales. Interested buyers will contact you directly. You are responsible for sales, tax, and delivery of art.
- You must replace sold artwork(s) with a reserve artwork or may arrange for sold artwork(s) to remain at Café Aion until the end of the exhibition.
- You will notify BAA at least a month in advance of your scheduled show if you have to cancel.

Exhibiting at Café Aion automatically assumes that you waive any claims of damage or theft against Café Aion, Boulder Art Association or its coordinator(s). You may consider purchasing insurance to protect against loss. You give Café Aion and BAA permission to use images of your submitted artworks for show publicity.
